CULTURAL GROUP ACTIVITIES

INIPI

Inipi sweat purification ceremony is open to all Indigenous community members seeking spiritual connection. During Inipi, we will be mindful of those in attendance, taking care that all of our relatives feel safe. Please do not attend if you are on your moon time.

Inipi is open to men, women, children, Two-Spirit, and gender diverse community members seeking spiritual connection.

Facilitator: Leta Wise Spirit

RED ROAD APPROACH

Red Road Approach recovery groups offer a cognitive and experiential curriculum on Native American/Indigenous philosophies, activating the spirit for individuals, families, and communities. Participants will be guided through lessons on the impacts of alcohol and drugs on the mind, body, and spirit. This curriculum is a 10-week adult program that meets on a weekly basis.

Facilitator: Leta Wise Spirit

THERAPEUTIC CRAFTS

Join us for coffee, laughter, and traditional craft making! Open to the community. Enjoy a nice cup of coffee and work on traditional crafts, like beading and sewing, with help from the experts.

POSITIVE INDIAN PARENTING

Positive Indian Parenting (PIP) is an 8-week parent training class for Indigenous parents, caregivers, and non-Native foster parents Indigenous children, and others who strive to be more positive in their approach to parenting. PIP offers participants a structured exploration of traditional American Indian and Alaska Native values concerning parents and helps participants apply those values in a modern setting.
